Outlook on the 1988 Concordia Classic

The Concordia Classic features three National Finalists from last year (Laurentian, McGill, Winnipeg) and a team destined for a top 5 ranking this year (Dalhousie). The host Concordia Stingers will rely on two-time Conference All-Star Carol Assalian (5'6"; Montreal) for scoring leadership this year. Third year forward Carole McIntyre (5'10"; Pierrefonds, Quebec) has been the Stingers leading scorer early in the season while Sophomore Post Suzi Czelnai (6'0"; Montreal) has been the team's leading rebounder. Captain Anne-Marie Ouellet (5'10"; Pierrefonds, Quebec) will also be an integral part of the Stinger's resurgence this season. Head coach Louisa Zerbe, who was voted 1985 CIAU Coach of the Year, will need a tremendous effort from her team in their opening game against the Dalhousie Tigers.

The Tigers finished with a 9-3 record in the AUAA last year and are led by the MacCormack sisters. Two-time All-Canadian Forward Kathy MacCormack (6'1", North Sydney, NS) and her sister Trish (6'2"; North Sydney, NS) are both returning for their fifth years with the Tigers. Kathy is a member of Canada's National Team and the Tigers will count on her and hot shooting guard Mary K. Layes (5'7", Antigonish, NS) to provide the bulk of the scoring.

The Laurentian Vees will be a strong contender in the OUAA this year. 1987 CIAU Coach of the Year Peter Ennis has a fine nucleus of players including forward Kelly Edwards (6'; Midland, Ontario) and 1987-88 OWIAA All-Star guard Shirlene Mclean (5'8"; Sudbury). National team member Chantel St. Martin will also be a key player for Laurentian, who finished with an impressive 11-1 record in the tough OWIAA East Division last year.

The McGill Martlets are coming off their best season ever (30-6 overall). They will count on two-time conference All-Star Leah Hayman (5'9"; Ottawa), who averaged 16.3 points per game last year. Junior guard Tina Fasone (5'9", Montreal) has been impressive for the Martlets early in the season and will be a player to watch in the tournament.

The Winnipeg Wesmen will be a force to reckon with in this year's Classic. The Wesmen were ranked in Canada's Top Ten throughout most of last season. First Team All-Canadian forward Margaret Mulder (6'0"; Oro, Ontario) leads a star studded line-up that includes GPAC "Rookie of the Year" Terri Martin (6'1"; Winnipeg) and All-Star guard Tanya Mackenzie. Martin competed for Canada's National Junior Team in Brazil this summer.

Laurier finished with a 6-6 record in the OWIAA while Ryerson finished at 4-8 in the same conference. Ryerson will field a team with 7 rookies and are directed by new coach Theresa Burns. The Carleton Robins are continuing their rebuilding program under head coach Larry Lanthier. Every player is in their first or second year. ■

A Brief History

The Concordia Women's Basketball Classic has been a premier event in collegiate sports since 1972. The tournament was originally called the Loyola Women's Invitational. Although the event has gone through several name changes, it continues to attract some of the top Women's Basketball teams in Canada.

Dalhousie won the first invitational, defeating the Waterloo Athenas 61-47 in the final game. The 1976 tournament was perhaps the most competitive and exciting with 14 members of the Canadian National Team in action. The Stingers upended the eventual National Champion Laurentian Vees 72-67 to win their only Classic Championship.

Concordia Classic Past Champions

Year Champion MVP
1972 Dalhousie Joan Selig (Dal)
1973 Queen's College (NY) Debbie Mason (Q)
1974 Laurentian Liz Silcott (Loyola)
1975 Southern Connecticut Marnie Dacko (SC)
1976 Concordia Liz Silcott (Conc)
1977 Laurentian Joan Van Ness (SC)
1978 Laurentian Sylvia Sweeney (L)
1979 Bishop's Debbie Huband (Bish)
1980 Bishop's Joann Bourque (Conc)
1981 Providence Kerry Phaye (Prov)
1982 St. John's (NY) D. Beckford (St John's)
1983 Bishop's Andrea Blackwell (Bish)
1984 Laurentian Carol Hamilton (Laur)
1985 Laurentian Sandy Stevenson (Laur)
1986 McGill Mireille Beland (McG)
1987 McGill Ria Bahadursingh (UPEI)

The Bishop's Gaiters emerged as a Canadian powerhouse in 1979. Former National Team Member Debbie Huband was selected tournament MVP as the Gaiters won their first Classic Title. Bishop's were repeat winners in 1980 as they downed St. Johns (NY). All-Canadian Bourque was selected tournament MVP as she scored 78 points.

Bishop's ended the US Tournament domination in 1983 as National Team member Andrea Blackwell set two tournament records as the Gaiters defeated UNB in the final. Blackwell scored 43 points in the final and 81 points in the tournament. Both of these totals remain Classic Records.

The Laurentian Vees were repeat winners in 1984 & 1985 as NAN COPP winner Carol Hamilton led the team to consecutive Championships. The McGill Martlets won the classic the last two years.

The 17th Classic will feature eight outstanding teams and some of the finest Basketball players in the country. National Team Members Kathy and Trish MacCormack (Dalhousie) and Chantal St. Martin (Laurentian) will be three players to watch. Two potential National Team members are Margaret Mulder and Terri Martin from Winnipeg. One new addition is the sponsorship of Converse which has been the leader in basketball shoes for over seventy years. With the assistance of Converse, Concordia will continue to bring you the best in Women's Basketball. ■
